(c) A competitive examination, including a written test and/or group discussion and interview, shall be conducted by the Competent Authority or by an outside agency engaged by the Board for the purpose of recruitment.

Provided that Competent Authority may relax any or all of these requirements, for reasons to be recorded in writing ⁷[:]

⁸[Provided further that interview and/or group discussion shall not be conducted for the purpose of recruitment of whole time employees other than officers.]

(d) Competent authority shall constitute a selection committee, comprising such number of persons and outside expert as he may determine for interviewing the candidates.

Provided that in the case of appointment to the post of Executive Director, the Selection Committee shall consist of Chairman and two other members of the Board, constituted by the Chairman and such appointment to the post of Executive Director shall be approved by the Board before an offer of appointment is issued to the selected candidate.

Temporary/Contract employees

7. (1)(a) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, the competent authority may appoint persons on a temporary basis due to exigencies of work, on suitable terms and conditions, subject to such general or special directions, if any issued by the Board from time to time.

(b) The terms and conditions of service of the temporary employees shall be specified by the competent authority but in no case shall the terms and conditions so specified be more favourable than those laid down in these regulations for an appointment carrying equivalent status or responsibility.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, Competent authority may appoint persons on contract basis due to exigencies of work on suitable terms and conditions.

(3) Competent authority may, due to exigencies of work and/or non-availability of suitable candidates within the Board's service, take on deputation such employees in Grade D and above from Govt. or any other Organisations for a specified period and their terms and conditions of deputation, shall be specified by the competent authority in consultation with the lending organisation.

(4) In the case of appointment to the post of Executive Director by deputation or on contract, the appointment shall be approved by the Board before an offer of appointment is issued to the person to be appointed on deputation or on contract.

Appointments to be made on minimum pay

8. All initial appointments shall be made on the minimum pay of the grade to which the appointment is made, provided the Chairman may keeping in view the higher academic qualifications, special experience of value to the Board and salary in the previous job, grant additional increments, not exceeding four in the scale of pay fixed for the grade in which the appointment is made.

⁷ Substituted for ";" by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 2016, w.e.f. 15-12-2016.

⁸ Inserted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 2016, w.e.f. 15-12-2016.

Re-employment in Board

9. (1) No person who has ceased to be in the service of the Board except by way of removal or dismissal or compulsory retirement may be re-employed without the specific sanction of, and on such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Board.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by the Board at the time of his re-employment, these Regulations shall apply to a person who is re-employed in the Board, as if he had entered the service for the first time on the date of his re-employment.

Probation

10. (1) An employee directly appointed in any of the specified scales of pay or promoted to one grade/scale to another shall be on probation for a period of one year.

(2) Chairman may, if he considers it necessary extend the period of probation upto a period of one year for unsatisfactory performance or reduce or dispense with period of probation for reasons to be recorded in writing.

(3) Save as otherwise provided in this regulation, an employee shall be deemed to have been confirmed in the post to which he has been appointed or, as the case may be, promoted on successful completion of the period of probation.

(4) During the first month of his probation, an employee may be discharged without assigning any reasons at one day's notice and thereafter at one month's notice or by payment of substantive pay for one day or one month as the case may be in lieu thereof.

(5) Without prejudice to the provisions of Regulation 17, an employee selected from the Board's employees and on probation shall be liable to be reverted to his previous grade without notice or pay in lieu thereof if, in the opinion of the competent authority, he fails to show satisfactory performance during the period of his probation.

Commencement of service

11. Except as otherwise provided by or under these Regulations, "service" of an employee shall be deemed to commence from the working day on which an employee reports for duty in an appointment covered by these Regulations at the place and time intimated to him by the appointing authority.

Provided that if he reports after noon, his service shall commence from the next following working day.

Determination of service by notice

12. (1) An employee shall not leave or discontinue his service in the Board without first giving notice to the Competent Authority, in writing of his intention to leave or discontinue the service.

(2) The period of notice required shall be,—

(a) In the case of employees holding the post on regular basis, three months;

(b) In the case of employees holding the post on probation, one month;

Provided that Chairman may waive the period of notice required under this sub-regulation for the reasons to be recorded in writing.

Provided further that the employee shall not be entitled to set off any leave earned and not availed of by him against the period of such notice.

(3) In the case of breach by an employee of the provisions of the sub-regulation (2), he shall be liable to pay to the Board as compensation a sum equal to his substantive pay for the period of notice required of him.

Provided that the payment of such compensation may be waived by the Chairman, at his discretion.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1), the resignation of an employee shall not be effective unless it is accepted by the competent authority. The competent authority may refuse to accept a resignation;

- (a) If disciplinary proceedings have been instituted against or are proposed to be instituted against the employee;
- (b) If the employee is under an obligation to serve the) Board for a specified period which has not yet expired;
- (c) The employee owes the Board any sums of money; or
- (d) For any other sufficient ground to be recorded in writing.

Explanation 1.—Disciplinary proceedings shall be deemed to be instituted against an employee for the purposes of this sub-regulation if he has been placed under suspension under these Regulations or any notice has been issued to him asking him to show cause why disciplinary proceedings should not be instituted against him or any charge-sheet has been issued to him under these Regulations and will be deemed to be pending till final orders are passed by the competent authority.

Explanation 2.—The expression "month" used in this Regulation shall be reckoned according to the English calendar and shall commence from the day following that on which notice is given by the employee or the Board as the case may be.

Explanation 3.—A notice given by an employee under sub-regulation (1) above shall be deemed to be proper only if he remains on duty during the period of the notice.

Superannuation and Retirement

13. (1) An employee shall retire at 60 years of age.

Provided that the Board may retire any employee on, or at any time after the completion of 55 years of age or 30 years of total service, whichever is earlier, by giving him three months notice in writing.

(2) An employee, who attains the age of superannuation on any day other than the first day of any calendar month, shall retire on the last day of the month in which he completed his age of retirement.

(3) An employee may also, if he so desires, and subject to terms of appointment to the contrary, if any, retire from service on completion of 50 years of age or 20 years of service in the Board, by giving three months notice to the Board in writing.

⁹[(3A) The Board may also offer a scheme subject to such terms and conditions as it may specify, to its whole-time employees for voluntary retirement from the services of the Board.]

(4) When an employee retires from service either under the provisions of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) or sub-regulation (3), the Board may consider grant of compensation on such scale and terms as may be determined by it from time to time. The Board while determining the terms shall take into account all relevant factors including the balance of service left to a retiring employee.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, where an employee has ordinary leave earned but not availed of as on the date of retirement, he may, at his option,

(a) be permitted to avail of leave subject to a maximum of ten months in respect of leave earned under these Regulations and in that case the employee will be deemed to have retired from service on the expiry of the leave;

or

(b) be paid a lumpsum amount which would be equivalent to pay as defined in Regulation 3(1)(j) of these Regulations as on the date of his retirement, for the unavailed ordinary leave earned subject to maximum of ten months plus all allowances normally admissible to the employee concerned during ordinary leave, after which he shall retire.

Explanation :—"Date of Retirement" means the date on which the employee attains the age of superannuation in accordance with the provisions of the Regulation or the date on which he is retired by the Board under sub-regulation (1) of the Regulation or the date on which the employee voluntarily retires in terms of sub-regulation (3)¹⁰[or sub-regulations (3A)] of the Regulation as the case may be.

Execution of Bond, etc.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, the Board will have the right to obtain undertakings/bonds from an employee for payment of liquidated damages relating to deputation of training or his failure to complete the required number of years of service in a particular post, as may be determined by the Board from time to time.

CHAPTER III

RECORD OF SERVICE, SENIORITY, PROMOTION AND REVERSION

Record of Service

14. A record of service shall be maintained by the Board in respect of each employee at such place or places and shall be kept in such form and shall contain such information as may be specified from time to time by the Chairman.

Seniority

15.¹¹[(1) An employee confirmed in the services of the Board shall ordinarily rank for seniority in his/her grade, according to the date of his/her confirmation in that grade,

¹⁰ Inserted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2011, w.e.f. 10-10-2011.

¹¹ Substituted by SEBI (Employees' Service) Regulations, 2010, w.r.e.f. 30-1-2008. Prior to its substitutions sub-regulations (1) read as under :

"(1) An employee confirmed in the services of the Board shall ordinarily rank for seniority in his grade according to his date of confirmation in the grade and an employee on probation shall ordinarily rank for seniority among the employees selected along with him in the same batch according to the ranking assigned to him at the time of selection."

as follows :

- (a) All India direct recruitment through open competition/internal promotions through switch over to the officer cadre - an employee on probation shall ordinarily rank for seniority among the employees selected along with him/her in the same batch according to the ranking assigned to him/her at the time of selection.
- (b) Through Campus Selection - an employee on probation shall ordinarily rank for seniority among the employees selected along with him/her in the same batch according to the ranking assigned to him/her upon completion of inductions training or departmental examination as decided by the competent authority.]
- (2) The Board shall, each year, prepare a list of the employees in its service showing their names in the order of their seniority containing such other particulars as the Chairman may determine and a copy of such list shall be made available to each employee.

Promotion

16. (1) All promotions shall be made at the discretion of the Board and notwithstanding his seniority in a grade no employee shall have a right to be promoted to any particular post or grade.

Provided that an employee, who has put in a minimum of 3 years of service in any post or grade, when promotion opportunities arise, shall be eligible for consideration of promotion to a higher post.

Provided further that an employee in any grade in the cadre of secretarial staff, accounts assistants and library assistants who possess requisite qualifications may be considered for switch over to the ¹²[corresponding grade in the] Officer cadre against such vacancies, which shall be 10% of total vacancies arising in a calendar year, as may be notified by the Competent Authority, subject to such employees qualifying in a departmental test conducted by the Competent Authority or by an outside agency engaged by the Board and interview to be conducted by the Competent Authority for this purpose.

(2) All promotions shall be against vacancies in sanctioned posts declared by the competent authority ¹³[except promotions to officer Grade C ¹⁴[]] and shall be based on—

- (a) Seniority, merit and suitability in the cases of Officers and Secretarial Staff, Accounts Assistants ¹⁵[, Library Assistants, Junior Secretarial Assistants, Junior Accounts Assistants, Junior Library Assistants and Junior Engineers];
- (b) Seniority and merit in the cases of ¹⁶[] Messenger, Cook, Driver, ¹² Inserted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 2012, w.r.e.f. 19-11-2012.

¹³ Inserted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations 2010, w.r.e.f. 30-1-2008.

¹⁴ Words "and officer Circle" omitted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2012 w.e.f. 2-5-2012.

¹⁵ Substituted for "and Library Assistants" by the SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2012 w.e.f. 2-5-2012.

¹⁶ Words "Receptionist-com-Telephone Operator and" omitted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2010 w.r.e.f. 30-1-2008.

Messenger-cum-Driver, Messenger-cum-General Assistant.

Provided that in assessing the suitability of the employee for promotion, the performance of the employee in the post or grade, from where he is being considered for promotion, shall be considered.

(3) For the purpose of promotions, Chairman shall constitute a Departmental Promotion Committee comprising such number of persons including external expert which may conduct interviews, if so decided, for selection of employees for considering promotion to the next grade or post.

Provided that in the case of promotions to the post of Executive Director, the Committee shall consist of Chairman and two other members of the Board.

Reversion

17. An employee promoted from one grade to another shall be liable to be reverted without notice at any time within one year of such promotion.

CHAPTER IV

PAY, ALLOWANCES AND OTHER BENEFITS

Pay and allowances

18. (1) The Board, shall at its discretion, determine from time to time the pay and allowances applicable to different categories of employees.

Other benefits

(2) The Board, may at its discretion, from time to time frame such schemes and allow such other benefits for the welfare of the employees at such terms and conditions as it may determine.

When accrue and payable

19. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, pay and allowances shall accrue from the commencement of the service of an employee, and shall become payable on the afternoon of the last working day of each month in respect of the service performed during the said month.

Provided that an employee proceeding on ordinary leave other than extraordinary leave for a period not less than one month may be paid in advance one month's pay and allowances if he applies therefor.

When not payable for part of a month

20. Pay and allowances shall not be payable for a part of a month to an employee who leaves or discontinues his service without due notice during a month, unless such notice has been waived by the competent authority.

When allowance to cease

21. Pay and allowances shall cease to accrue from the date as an employee ceases to be in service.

In the case of an employee dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired from the Board's service, the pay and allowances shall cease from the date of his dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement. In the case of an employee who dies while in service, they shall cease from the day following that on which the death occurs.

Admissibility of allowances

22. Allowances shall only be payable to employees who are actually at that time fulfilling the conditions subject to which they are admissible.

Compensatory allowance

23. Notwithstanding the fact that the whole-time of an employee is at the disposal of the Board, the Board may grant compensatory allowance, not counting as pay, to an employee who is required to work on holidays or to put in extra hours on week days in connection with the Board's work.

The rate at, and the circumstances in which such allowance may be drawn shall be determined by the Chairman.

Increments

24. (1) In an incremental scale, the increment shall accrue on an annual basis or each stage of that scale, whether such service be probationary, officiating or substantive.

Provided that the benefit of increment shall be admissible from the first of the month in which it accrues, irrespective of the actual date of its accrual.

(2) Officiating service in a higher grade will count for increments in an employee's substantive grade as well as in the higher grade in which he is officiating and if there is an intermediate grade between the two in which he would have officiated had he not been appointed to officiate in the higher grade, also in the intermediate grade, but the period during which an employee is on leave without pay will not count for increment unless so authorised by the competent authority for reasons to be recorded in writing.

(3) Sanction to draw increments will be given by the Competent authority.

(4) No increment may be withheld except as a disciplinary measure under Regulation 79 and each order withholding an increment shall state the period for which it is withheld and whether the postponement shall have the effect of postponing future increments:

Provided that if in an incremental scale there is an efficiency bar, an employee shall not draw increments above that bar until he has been certified fit to do so by the Competent Authority. On each occasion on which an employee is allowed to pass an efficiency bar which has previously been enforced against him, he shall be placed in the incremental scale at such stage as the authority competent to remove the bar may fix provided that such stage shall not be higher than that at which he would draw his pay if the bar had not been enforced against him and further that no increments granted on the removal of a bar shall have a retrospective effect.

(5) The Chairman may, grant stagnation increments to an employee who has reached the last stage in the concerned scale.

Refixation of pay on promotion

25. (1) The pay of an employee promoted from one grade to another shall be initially fixed at the minimum in the scale of higher grade, the difference between the pay so fixed and the substantive pay of the employee in the old scale, if the later be more, be treated as personal pay;

On confirmation

(2) On confirmation in the higher grade, the pay of an (2) employee shall be fixed at the stage in the higher grade which is next above his substantive pay in the old scale as on the date of confirmation, if such pay be higher than the pay drawn by him at the time of confirmation.

Domicile

26. (1) Every employee shall on his appointment declare his domicile in writing to the Board and if such domicile is not his place of birth he must establish the same to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority.

(2) No employee who has once indicated his domicile, shall be (2) allowed to alter the same unless he satisfies the Board that the change is bonafide and in no case may an employee be permitted to change his domicile in such a manner as to increase the cost to the Board of any such concession.

CHAPTER V

LEAVE AND JOINING TIME

Kinds of leave

27. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, the following kinds of leave may be granted to an employee:

- (a) Casual leave and Special Casual leave
- (b) Ordinary leave
- (c) Sick leave and Special leave
- (d) Maternity leave ¹[or Peternity Leave, as the case may be]
- (e) Extraordinary leave
- (f) Accident leave
- (g) Other special leave as may be specified by the Board

(2) Pay during leave shall be drawn at full or half rate of leave pay, according to the kind of leave availed of by the employee provided that no pay shall be admissible during the extraordinary leave.

Authorities empowered to grant leave

28. The power to grant leave shall vest in the competent authority. All applications for leave shall be addressed by the employee to the authority empowered to grant leave.

Power to refuse leave or recall an employee on leave

29. (1) Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. When the exigencies of the service so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it, and an employee already on leave may be recalled by that authority when it considers necessary in the interests of the service of the Board.

Lapse of leave on cessation of service

(2) Save as otherwise specifically provided in these (2) Regulations, leave earned by an employee lapses on the date on which he ceases to be in service.

Earlier return from leave

(3) Unless he is permitted to do so by the authority which (3) granted his leave, an employee on leave may not return to duty more than 14 days before the expiry of the period of leave granted to him.

Commencement and termination of leave

30. (1) The first day of an employee's leave is the working day succeeding that upon which he takes over charge.

(2) The last day of an employee's leave is the working day preceding that upon which he reports his return to duty.

Obligation to furnish leave address

31. An employee shall, before proceeding on leave, intimate to the competent authority his address with telephone number (if any) while on leave, and shall keep the said authority informed of any change in the address previously furnished.

Station to which an employee should report on return

32. An employee on leave shall, unless otherwise instructed to the contrary, return for duty to the place at which he was last stationed.

When medical certificate of fitness may be demanded

33. A competent authority may require an employee who has availed himself leave above three days for reasons of health to produce a medical certificate of fitness before he resumes duty even though such leave was not actually granted on a medical certificate.

Leave not admissible to an employee under suspension

34. Leave may not be granted to an employee under suspension or against whom disciplinary proceedings are pending.

Casual leave

35. (1) An employee shall be eligible for casual leave upto a maximum of 12 working days in each calendar year provided that no employee may take casual leave for less than ½ day or more than 5 days at a time.

Provided that public holidays may not be combined with such leave in such a way as to increase the absence at any one time beyond twelve days. Any casual leave which is extended beyond these limits will be treated as Ordinary Leave in respect of the entire period.

Casual leave cannot be suffixed or prefixed with any other kind of leave except with special casual leave.

(2) No casual leave may be availed of, except with prior sanction of the competent authority.

Provided that if for any genuine reason, it is not possible for an employee to obtain such permission in advance, he shall intimate his absence to such authority within 24 hours.

Provided further that such authority may condone the delay, if any, in this behalf if he is satisfied that an employee was not in a position to intimate his absence for reasons beyond his control.

(3) When an employee joins the service of the Board at any time during the year, his entitlement to casual leave shall be at the rate of one day per month during that calendar year.

(4) The casual leave, which has not been availed of at the end of the calendar year, shall be credited to the extent of 50% of such leave not availed of, to the ordinary leave account of the concerned employee. Fraction, if any, in such cases shall be ignored.

Special Casual Leave

36. Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation 35, the Chairman may permit the grant of special casual leave.

(1) When the absence from duty is necessitated by orders from the authorities empowered to issue quarantine orders not to attend office in consequence of any infectious disease in the family or household of any employee;

(2) When the absence of an employee is due to his having sustained a bodily injury while on duty and the absence is supported by certificate from the Medical Officer of the Board or registered medical practitioner;

(3) When the absence is necessitated by reason of an employee who is a member of the Auxiliary Force, India, Home Guard, A R P or other Civil Defence Organization or any other organisation of a similar nature having to attend an annual camp or a training course; or

(4) When there are other exceptional circumstances necessitating the grant of special casual leave in excess of the specified limits;

(5) For undergoing family planning operation, subject to production of medical certificate :-

(a) Female Employees :

(i) 14 days for tubectomy/laproscopy

(ii) 1 day on the day on which the husband undergoes vasectomy.

(iii) 1 day on the day of IUD insertion/reinsertion.

(b) Male Employees :

(i) 6 days for vasectomy operation

(ii) 7 days when the wife undergoes tubectomy/laproscopy.

Provided that special casual leave sanctioned under this sub-regulation may be clubbed with any other leave, except casual leave.

Explanation 1.—Except in respect of special casual leave sanctioned in terms of sub-regulation (4) of this regulation, the total period of casual leave granted under Regulation 35(1) and the special casual leave granted under this regulation in any one calendar year shall in no case exceed 45 days and if the grant of leave under the said Regulations shall result in such total period being extended beyond 45 days, any period of absence in excess of 45 days shall be treated, subject to the provisions of Regulation 43(2) as Ordinary, Sick, Special or Extraordinary Leave, as the employee concerned may request and as may be admissible to him.

Explanation 2.—Except in respect of special casual leave sanctioned in terms of sub-regulation (4) of this regulation, in computing casual leave under Regulation 35 (1) and special casual leave under this Regulation, intervening public holidays shall not be reckoned as day of casual leave or special casual leave as the case may be.

¹⁷[Special hardship leave for female employees.

36A. (1) Eligibility.

¹⁷ Regulation 36A substituted by the SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2015, w.e.f. 26-2-2015. Prior to its substitution, said Regulation, as inserted by the SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2013, w.e.f. 8-10-2013, read as under : "36A. Special casual leave for child care.—(1) Special casual leave for child care may be granted to a female employee who is a mother, for taking care of two eldest surviving children who have not attained the age of twelve years, for a period of fifteen days per annum for each child.

(2) The special casual leave for child care will be admissible for looking after the various needs of the child like medical needs, educational needs and other child rearing requirements.

(3) Special casual leave for child care cannot be clubbed with any other type of leave and the intervening holidays during the period of leave would also be counted for the purposes of the said leave.

(4) The special casual leave for child care may be availed in multiple spells in one calendar year and the unavailed leave would lapse at the end of every calendar year.

(5) Leave fare concession cannot be availed during the period of the special casual leave for child care.

(6) The employee can proceed on special casual leave for child care only after obtaining the approval of such leave from the competent authority :

Provided that in case of any genuine exigency, if it is not possible for any employee to obtain such permission in advance, she shall intimate her absence to such authority within 24 hours: Provided further that such authority may condone the delay, if any, in this behalf if he is satisfied that an employee was not in position to intimate her absence for reasons beyond her control.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this regulation, the term 'child' shall mean both natural and adopted."

- (a) A female employee confirmed in the services of the Board and having completed five years of service in the Board, is eligible to apply for special hardship leave:

- (q) A female employee availing special hardship leave shall intimate to the Board, her local address for correspondences and also inform any changes in address for communication, from time to time.]

Ordinary leave

37. (1) Every employee shall be entitled to ordinary leave at the rate of 30 days for every year of service subject to a maximum accumulation of ten months (300 days).

The leave so earned shall be credited to the ordinary leave account of the employee half yearly on 1st April and 1st October respectively in each year at the rate of 15 days for every 6 months of service rendered by such employee.

No employee, shall earn ordinary leave when he is on leave other than casual leave for a continuous period of more than 6 months. If an employee renders less than 6 months of service in any half year, he shall be credited with one day for every 11 days of duty.

Fractions of a day of earned leave shall be taken as full day if amounting to half a day or more, and shall be ignored if amounting to less than half a day.

(2) The period of ordinary leave, which can be taken at one time by an employee shall not be less than five days.

Provided that the employee may take less than 5 days when he does not have casual leave to his credit.

(3) Application for grant of ordinary leave shall be submitted fifteen days in advance from the date of availing, to the Competent Authority.

(4) An employee on ordinary leave shall draw pay equal to leave pay.

Encashment of Ordinary Leave

38. (1) An employee may be permitted to encash ordinary leave once in two years for a minimum period of 10 days and a maximum period of 30 days.

Provided that at the time of such encashment the employee avails of ordinary leave for a minimum period of 10 days and also has to his credit a balance of leave which shall not be less than the leave so encashed.

Provided further that availing of ordinary leave for a minimum period of 10 days is not required in the case of resignation by the employee subject to the condition that the employee gives required notice, as the case may be, under these regulations.

(2) If an employee dies during the Board's service or who is declared by the Medical Officer of the Board to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service, he (legal heirs in case of death of an employee) may be granted by the competent authority, cash equivalent to unavailed earned leave to his credit on the date of death, invalidation from service, as the case may be.

¹⁸[(3) An employee of the Board who resigns from service after giving proper notice of resignation, in terms of regulation 12, may be permitted encashment of half of the period of ordinary leave at his/her credit as on the date of resignation subject to a maximum of five months ordinary leave.]

Sick leave

39. (1) Every employee shall be entitled to sick leave, on production of medical certificate, at the rate of 20 days for every calendar year of service subject to a maximum of 540 days during the full period of his service. Additional sick leave may be granted if it is considered necessary and advisable in the interest of the Board.

Provided further that in the case of an employee, the production of a medical certificate may not be insisted upon if sick leave to be granted does not exceed three

(2) Sick leave shall be on half pay.

Provided that where an employee has served the Board for at least a period of three years, he may, if he so requests, be permitted to avail, during the full period of his service, sick leave on leave pay upto a maximum period of nine months and such leave on leave pay shall be entered in his sick leave account as twice the amount of leave taken by him.

(3) An employee may be granted sick leave during the first year of his service on pro-rata basis at the discretion of the Competent Authority.

Maternity leave

40. (1) Maternity leave, which shall be on leave pay, may be granted to a female employee upto a period of 180 days on full pay at a time and not more than 360 days during the entire period of service.

(2) Female employees undergoing hysterectomy operation may also claim maternity leave for a period not exceeding 20 days (including stay in hospital) within the overall ceiling of 360 days.

(3) Leave not exceeding 45 days may be granted to a female employee during the entire service of the female employee in case of miscarriage including abortion on production of medical certificate within the overall ceiling of 360 days.

(4) A competent authority may grant leave of any other kind admissible to the female employee in combination with, or in continuation of maternity leave if the request for its grant is supported by requisite medical certificate.

¹⁹[Paternity Leave

40A. (1) Paternity Leave may be granted to a male Staff member (natural father), with less than two surviving children, during the confinement of his wife for child birth, for a period of fifteen days per child, from fifteen days prior to the delivery or up to six months from the date of such delivery.

(2) Paternity Leave may also be granted to a male employee (adoptive father), with less than two surviving children, who has adopted a child through proper legal process, for a period of fifteen days per child within six months from the date of adoption.

(3) During the period of Paternity Leave, the employee shall be paid leave pay.

(4) Paternity Leave may be combined with any kind of leave other than Casual Leave and Special Casual Leave.

(5) The employee shall avail the entire Paternity Leave at one time during the eligible period as mentioned in sub-regulations (1) and (2), as the case may be.]

Accident leave

41. (1) Accident leave may be granted to an employee who sustains an injury in the course of the performance of his duties, for the period for which leave is certified by the Medical Officer of the Board to be necessary for recovery from the injury.

(2) Accident leave would also be admissible to an employee, who is on tour / duty in connection with the official work of the Board, subject to the period for which leave is necessary for recovery from the injury being certified either by the Board's Medical Officer, or a Government/Municipal doctor.

(3) The competent authority may, at the option of the employee, grant any other kind of leave as admissible to him for the period so medically certified and also in combination with or in continuation of any accident leave sanctioned.

(4) An employee on accident leave shall for the first four months thereof, draw a pay equal to his leave pay and half leave pay for the rest of the period.

Extraordinary leave

42. (1) Extraordinary leave may be granted to an employee when no other leave is due to him and when, having regard to his length of service, sick or special leave is not considered justified by the competent authority. Except in exceptional circumstances, the duration of extraordinary leave shall not exceed 90 days on any one occasion and 360 days during the entire period of an employee's service.

(2) The competent authority may grant extraordinary leave in combination with, or in continuation of leave of any other kind admissible to the employee, and may commute retrospectively periods of absence without leave into extraordinary leave.

(3) No pay and allowances are admissible during the period of extraordinary leave and the period spent on such leave shall not count for increments:

Provided that, in cases where the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the leave was taken on account of illness or for any other cause beyond the employee's control, it may direct that the period of extraordinary leave may count for increments.

Special leave

43. (1) During the full period of his service an employee may be granted special leave on private affairs for a period not exceeding 360 days. Special leave may not be availed of if ordinary leave is admissible;

Provided that an employee may be granted special leave if he is suffering from a disease requiring prolonged treatment and he has no ordinary leave and sick leave to his credit and is also not eligible.

(2) In case an employee is absent from duty on account of quarantine, the Board may, at the request of the employee, treat such absence upto a maximum of 90 days as ordinary, sick or special leave if such leave is otherwise permissible. Special leave under the sub-regulation may be availed of even if ordinary leave is admissible.

Pay during special leave

44. Special leave shall be on half leave pay, which shall be reduced, except with the special sanction of the Chairman, to one quarter of leave pay after six months.

Joining Time

45. (1) Joining time may be granted to an employee by the Chairman to enable the employee—

- (a) to join a new post to which he is appointed while on duty in his old post; or
- (b) to join a new post on return from leave of not more than four months' duration although the duration of leave exceeds four months, the employee has not had sufficient notice of his appointment to the new post.

(2) Joining time shall not be granted when no change in the headquarters of an employee is involved.

Pay and allowances during joining time

(3) The pay and allowances of an employee on joining time shall be determined in accordance with the Regulations.

Period for which admissible

(4) Joining time which may be allowed to an employee shall not exceed seven days, exclusive of the number of days spent on travelling.

How calculated

(5) In calculating joining time admissible to an employee, the day on which he is relieved from his old post shall be excluded but public holidays following the day of his relief shall be included in the joining time.

Special casual leave in lieu of joining time

(6) Where an employee on transfer from one centre to another does not avail of the joining time or his joining time has been curtailed due to exigencies of Board's service, he may be allowed to avail of the Special Casual Leave to the extent of unavailed joining time subject to a maximum of 7 days, at any time after the date of reporting at new centre but before the completion of a period of six months or such other extended period as may be agreed to by the Board for submitting supplementary travelling allowance bill in respect of his family and personal effects provided he has advised the office to this effect before proceeding on transfer. Saturdays/Sundays/holidays prefixed to Special Casual Leave in lieu of joining time shall be excluded but Saturdays/Sundays/holidays intervening such Special Casual Leave shall be reckoned as Special Casual Leave.

(7) Where an employee on transfer from one station to another does not avail the entire joining time including special casual leave referred to in sub-regulation (6) or the same has been curtailed due to exigencies of Board's Service, the unavailed joining time will be added to the Ordinary Leave account of the employee.

Overstay after joining time

46. An employee who does not join his post within the joining time allowed to him shall be deemed to have committed a breach of Regulation 60.

CHAPTER VI

CONDUCT, DISCIPLINE AND APPEALS

Scope of an employee's service

47. Unless it be otherwise distinctly provided, the whole time of an employee shall be at the disposal of the Board and he shall serve the Board in its business in such capacity and at such place as he may from time to time be directed.

Liability to abide by Regulations and Orders

48. Every employee shall conform to and abide by these Regulations and shall observe, comply with and obey all orders and directions which may from time to time be given to him by any person or persons under whose jurisdiction, superintendence or control he may for the time being be placed.

Obligation to maintain secrecy

49. (1) Every employee shall maintain strictest secrecy regarding the Board's affairs and shall not divulge or disclose, directly or indirectly, any information of a confidential nature or relating to the working of the Board to a member of the public or of the Board's employees or to his friends or relatives, unless compelled to do so by judicial or other authority, or unless instructed to do so by a superior officer in the discharge of his duties.

(2) No employee shall make use of any information emanating from the Board or otherwise which has come to his knowledge in the discharge of his official duties for his personal benefit or for the benefit of his friends or relatives.

(3) No employee shall communicate any unpublished price sensitive information to any other person except when required to do so in the course of his official duty.

(4) Every employee, including those who are on contract/temporary basis shall, before entering upon his duties, make a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the FORM – A annexed to these Regulations.

Employees to promote Board's interest

50. (1) Every employee shall serve the Board honestly and faithfully and shall use his utmost endeavors to promote the interests of the Board and shall show utmost courtesy and attention in all transactions and dealings with the public, between the officers of Government and the Board.

(2) Every employee shall at all times :—

(a) maintain absolute integrity, good conduct and discipline ;

(b) maintain devotion and diligence to duty ; and

(c) do nothing which is unbecoming of an employee / a public servant.

(3) No employee shall in his official dealings with the public or otherwise adopt dilatory tactics or wilfully cause delays in disposal of the work assigned to him.

(4) No employee, shall, in the performance of his official duties or in the exercise of powers conferred on him, act otherwise than in his best judgement except when he is acting under the direction of his superior.

(5) Every employee shall take all possible steps to ensure the integrity and devotion to duty of all persons for the time being under his control and authority.

Prohibition against participation in politics and standing for election

51. No employee shall take active part in politics or in any political demonstration, or stand for election as member, of a Municipal Council, District Board or any other Local Body or any Legislative Body.

Prohibition against joining certain associations and strikes, etc.

52. No employee who is not a 'workman' within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 shall—

- (a) Become or continue to be a member or officebearer of, or be otherwise directly or indirectly associated with, any trade union of employees of the Board who are 'workmen' within the meaning of that Act, or a federation of such trade unions; or
- (b) Resort to, or in any way abet, any form of strike or participate in any violent, unseemly or indecent demonstration in connection with any matter pertaining to his conditions of service or the conditions of service of any other employee of the Board.

Contributions to the press

53. (1) No employee may contribute to the press without the prior sanction of the Competent Authority or without such sanction make public or publish any document, paper or information which may come in his possession in his official capacity.

(2) No employee shall except with the previous sanction of the (2) competent authority publish or cause to be published any book or any similar printed matter of which he is the author or not or deliver talk or lecture in any public meeting or otherwise.

Provided that no such sanction is required, if such broadcast or contribution or publication is of a purely literary, artistic, scientific, professional, cultural, educational, religious or social character.

Employee not to seek outside employment

54. No employee shall accept, solicit, or seek any outside employment or office, whether stipendiary or honorary, without the previous sanction of the Chairman.

Employment after retirement

55. (1) No employee of the Board who has retired from service shall, within a period of two years from the date when he finally ceases to be in the Board's service, accept or undertake a commercial employment except with the previous approval in writing of the competent authority.

Provided that an employee who was permitted by the Competent authority to take up commercial employment during his leave preparatory to retirement or during refused leave shall not be required to obtain subsequent permission for his continuance in such employment after retirement.

(2) For the purpose of this Regulation, "commercial (2) employment" means:

- (a) Employment in any capacity including that of an agent under a Company, Cooperative Society, firm or individual engaged in trade, or commercial, industrial or professional business and also includes a directorship of such a company and partnership of such firm but does not include employment under a body corporate wholly or substantially held or controlled by the Board.
- (b) Setting up a practice, either independently or as partner of a firm, as adviser or consultant in matters in respect of which the retired officer—
 - (i) has no professional qualifications and the matters in respect of which the practice is to be set up or is carried on are relatable to his official knowledge or experience, or
 - (ii) the matters in respect of which such practice is to be set up are such as are likely to give his clients an unfair advantage by reason of his previous official position, or
- (c) Undertaking work involving liaison or contact with the offices or officers of the Board.

Explanation : For the purpose of this clause, "employment under a cooperative society" includes the holding of any office, whether elective or otherwise such as that of President, Chairman, Manager, Secretary, Treasurer and the like, by whatever name called in such society.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1), no employee of the Board, including employees on contract shall within a period of two years from the date that he finally ceases to be in the Board's service, accept or undertake an employment or be in any manner associated with an intermediary registered with the Board, except with the prior written approval of the Competent Authority.

Provided, however, before refusing approval the competent authority shall give a hearing to the concerned employee. A copy of the decision taken shall be communicated by the Competent Authority to the concerned employee.

The competent authority while granting such approval shall satisfy itself regarding the appropriateness of granting the approval, having regard to dealing which the employee may have had with the said intermediary while in the services of the Board; and may impose such conditions as may be necessary having regard to the circumstances of the case including;

- (a) Prohibiting the employee from representing the intermediary in any manner before the Board.
- (b) Seeking a fresh approval from the Board in the event of the employee accepting or undertaking employment or associating in any manner with another intermediary registered with the Board, during the period of two years.

(4) The approval/refusal under this regulation shall be communicated to the employee by the Competent Authority within a period of 90 days from the date of receipt of the application for such approval, failing which the approval shall be deemed to have been granted.

Employment of family members with an intermediary registered with the Board

56. (1) No employee shall use his position or influence directly or indirectly to secure employment in any intermediary registered with the Board, of any person related, whether by blood or marriage to the employee or to the employee's wife or husband, whether such a person is dependent on the employee or not.

(2) Every employee shall report to the competent authority in case his son/daughter or any other member of his family accepts employment in any intermediary registered with the Board with which he has official dealings or in any undertaking having official dealings with the Board.

Giving evidence

57. (1) Save as provided in sub-regulation (3) no employee shall, except with the previous approval of the competent authority, give evidence in connection with any enquiry conducted by any person, committee or authority.

(2) Where any approval has been accorded under sub-regulation (1) no employee giving such evidence shall criticize the policy or any action of the Central Government or State Government or the Board.

(3) Nothing in this regulation shall apply to any evidence given (a) at any enquiry before an authority appointed by the Central Government, State Government, Parliament or a State Legislature; or (b) in any judicial enquiry; or (c) at any departmental enquiry ordered by the competent authority.

Seeking to influence

58. No employee shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his services in the Board.

Part-time work

59. No employee shall undertake part-time work for a private or public body or a private person, or accept any fee therefor, without the sanction of the competent authority which shall grant the sanction only in exceptional cases when it is satisfied that the work can be undertaken without detriment to his official duties and responsibilities. The competent authority may, in cases in which it thinks fit to grant such sanction, stipulate that any fees received by the employee for undertaking the work shall be paid, in whole or in part, to the Board.

Employee not to be absent from duty without permission or be late in attendance

60. (1) An employee shall not absent himself from his duties without having first obtained the permission of the competent authority, nor shall absent himself in case of sickness or accident without submitting a requisite medical certificate.

Provided that in the case of temporary indisposition, the production of a medical certificate may, at the discretion of the competent authority, be dispensed with.

(2) An employee who absents himself/herself from duty without leave or overstays his leave, except under circumstances beyond his control for which he must tender a satisfactory explanation, shall not be entitled to draw any pay and allowances during such absence or overstay, and shall further be liable to such disciplinary measures as the competent authority may impose. The period of such absence or overstay may, if not followed by discharge under Regulation 10(4) or compulsory retirement or removal or dismissal under Regulation 79, be treated as period spent on extraordinary leave.

(3) An employee who is habitually late in attendance shall, in addition to such other penalty as the competent authority may deem fit to impose, have one day of casual leave forfeited for every three days he is late in a month. Where such an employee has no casual leave due to him, the period of leave to be so forfeited may be treated as ordinary or extraordinary leave as the competent authority may determine.

Absence from station

61. An employee, if so required by the competent authority, must not absent himself from his station overnight without obtaining previous sanction of his superior.

Acceptance of gifts

62. (1) An employee shall not solicit or accept any gift or permit any member of his family or any person acting in his behalf to accept any gift from any person with whom the employee is likely to have official dealings either directly or indirectly or from any subordinate employee. Trivial gifts like small packets of sweets, diaries, calendars on the occasion of Diwali and New Year may, however, be exempted.

Explanation.—The expression "gift" shall include free transport, boarding, lodging or other service or any other pecuniary advantage when provided by any person other than a near relative or a personal friend having no official dealings with the employee or with the Board.

Note 1: A casual meal, lift or other social hospitality shall not be deemed to be a gift.

Note 2: An employee shall avoid acceptance of lavish or frequent hospitality from any individual or concern having official dealings with the employee or with the Board.

(2) On occasions such as marriages, anniversaries, funerals or (2) religious functions when the making of gifts is in conformity with the prevailing religious or social practice, an employee may accept gifts from his personal friends having no official dealing with the employee or with the Board but he shall make a report to the competent authority if the value of such gifts exceeds Rs.10,000.

(3) An employee shall not—

- (a) Give or take or abet the giving or taking of dowry; or
- (b) Demand directly or indirectly from the parents or guardians of a bride or bridegroom, as the case may be, any 'dowry' .

Explanation.—In this Regulation, the term 'dowry' shall have the same meaning as in the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961.

Private trading

63. No employee shall engage in any commercial business or pursue it either on his own account or as agent for others, nor act as an agent for an insurance company nor shall he be connected with the formation or management of a joint stock company.

Explanation.—Canvassing by an employee in support of the business of insurance agency or commission agency carried on or managed by a member of his family shall be deemed to be a breach of this Regulation.

Restrictions on investments

64. No employee shall make any direct or indirect investment in equity and equity related instruments including convertible debentures and warrants except units of Mutual Funds, non convertible bonds and non-convertible debentures, and in rights issues in respect of the shares already held by them. These restrictions would apply to :

- (i) Investments of the employees ;
- (ii) Investments of dependent children or other wards managed by the employee as a guardian
- (iii) Investment made by spouse, dependent children, dependent parents and dependent parents-in-laws of the employee out of the moneys received from the employee.

Speculation in stocks, shares, investments, etc.

65. (1) An employee shall not indulge in badla trading or trade, speculate in stock, shares, securities or commodities of any description.

(2) No employee, shall, when in knowledge of unpublished price sensitive information, encourage any person to deal in the securities to which it relates.

(3) Each employee is deemed to be an "insider" within the meaning of sub-section (e) of Section (2) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 and the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 are applicable to each employee of the Board. In case of allegations of insider trading, the onus would be on the employee to prove that he is not guilty of insider trading.

Movable, immovable and valuable property

66. ²⁰(1) Every employee shall make a declaration of his assets and liabilities as under,-

²⁰ Substituted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 2015, w.e.f. 21-4-2015. Prior substitution it read as under:

Every employee, shall, on his first appointment, and thereafter every year on 31st December, irrespective of whether or not there has been any change in the holding, furnish to the Board a return of his assets and liabilities, in such form as may be specified by the Board, giving full particulars regarding :—

Procedure for imposing major penalties

80. (1) No order imposing any of the major penalties specified in regulation 79 (2) shall be made except after an inquiry is held in accordance with this regulation.

(2) Whenever, the Competent Authority is of the opinion that there are grounds for inquiring into the truth of any imputation of misconduct or misbehaviour against an employee, it may itself inquire into or appoint any other officer ²³[or any person not below the rank of retired District Judge, retired High Court Judge, retired Joint Secretary to the Government of India, retired Secretary to any State Government or retired Executive Director of any Financial Institution/Nationalised Bank/Reserve Bank of India] (hereinafter referred to as the inquiry officer) to inquire into the truth thereof.

Explanation : A breach of any of the provisions of these regulations shall be deemed to constitute a misconduct.

The enquiry under this regulation, shall be done, in case the employee against whom proceeding is taken is an officer, by any officer who is in a grade higher than such employee and in the case of other employees any officer.

Explanation : When the Competent Authority itself holds the inquiry any reference in sub- regulation (8) to sub-regulation (21) to the inquiry Officer shall be construed as a reference to Competent Authority

(3) Where it is proposed to hold an inquiry, the Competent Authority shall frame definite and distinct charges on the basis of the allegation against the employee and the articles of charge, together with a statement of the allegations, on which they are based, shall be communicated in writing to the employee, who shall be required to submit within such time as may be specified by the Competent Authority (not exceeding 15 days), or within such extended time as may be granted by the said Authority, a written statement of his defence.

(4) On receipt of the written statement of the employee, or if no such statement is received within the time specified, an inquiry may be held by the Competent Authority itself, or if it considers in necessary so to do appoint under sub-regulation (2) an Inquiry Officer for the purpose.

Provided that it may not be necessary to hold an inquiry in respect of the articles of charge admitted by the employee in his written statement but shall be necessary to record its findings on each such charge.

(5) The Competent Authority shall, where it is not the Inquiry Officer, forward to the Inquiry Officer;

- (i) a copy of the articles of charges and statements of imputations of misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (ii) a copy of the written statement of defence, if any submitted by the employee;
- (iii) a list of documents by which and list of witnesses by whom the articles of charge are proposed to be substantiated;
- (iv) a copy of statements of the witnesses, if any;
- (v) evidence providing the delivery of articles of charge under sub-regulation (3);
- (vi) a copy of the order appointing the 'Presenting Officer' in terms of sub-regulation (6).

(6) Where the Competent Authority itself inquires or appoints an inquiring authority for holding an inquiry, it may, by an order, appoint an officer to be known as the "Presenting Officer" to present on its behalf the case in support of the articles of charge.

(7) The employee may take the assistance of any other employee but may not engage a legal practitioner, for the purpose, unless the presenting officer appointed by the Competent Authority, is a legal practitioner or Competent Authority having regard to the circumstances of the case, so permits.

(8)(a) The Inquiry Officer shall by notice in writing specify the day on which the employee shall appear in person before the Inquiry Officer.

(b) On the date fixed by the Inquiry Officer, the employee shall appear before the Inquiry Officer at the time, place and date specified in the notice.

(c) The Inquiry Officer shall ask the employee whether he pleads guilty or as any defence to make and if he pleads guilty to any of the Articles of charge, the Inquiry Officer shall record the plea, sign the record and obtain the signature of the employee concerned thereon.

(d) The Inquiry Officer shall return a finding of guilty in respect of those articles of charge to which the employee concerned pleads guilty.

(9) If the employee does not plead guilty, the Inquiry Officer shall adjourn the case to a later date not exceeding 30 days.

(10) (a) The Inquiry Officer shall, where the employee does not admit all or any of the articles of charge, furnish to such employee a list of documents by which, and a list of witness by whom, the articles of charge are proposed to be proved.

(b) The Inquiry Officer shall also record an order that the employee may for the purpose of preparing his defence.

(i) inspect within five days of the order or within such further time not exceeding five days as the inquiring officer may allow, the documents listed;

(ii) submit a list of documents and witness that he want for the inquiry;

(iii) be supplied with copies of statements or witnesses to be relied upon, if any, recorded earlier and the Inquiry Officer shall furnish such copies not later than three days before the commencement of the examination of the witnesses by the Inquiry Officer;

(iv) give a notice within ten days of the order or within such further time not exceeding ten days as the inquiring officer may allow for the discovery or production of the documents referred to in item (ii).

Note : The relevancy of the documents and the examination of the witnesses referred to in sub-clause (ii) shall be given by the employee concerned.

(11) The inquiry officer shall, on receipt of the notice for the discovery or production of the documents, forward the same or copies thereof to the authority in whose custody or possession the documents are kept with a requisition for the production of the documents on such date as may be specified.

(12) On the receipt of the requisition under sub regulation (11), the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents shall arrange to produce the same before the Inquiry Officer on the date, place and time specified in the requisition;

Provided that the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents may claim privilege if the production of such documents will be against the public interest or the interest of the Board. In that event, it shall inform the Inquiry Officer accordingly.

(13) On the date fixed for the inquiry, the oral or documentary evidence by which the articles of charge are proposed to be proved shall be produced by or on behalf of the Competent Authority.

The witnesses produced by the Presenting Officer shall be examined by the Presenting Officer and may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the employee.

The Presenting Officer shall be entitled to re-examine his witnesses on any points on which they have been cross – examined, but not on a new matter, without the leave of the inquiry officer.

The inquiry officer may also put such questions to the witnesses.

(14) Before the close of the case, in support of the charges, the Inquiry Officer may, in its discretion, allow the Presenting Officer to produce evidence not included in chargesheet or may itself call for new evidence or recall or re-examine any witness. In such case the employee shall be given opportunity to inspect the documentary evidence before it is taken on record, or to cross-examine a witness, who has been so summoned. The Inquiry Officer may also allow the employee to produce new evidence, if it is of opinion that the production of such evidence is necessary in the interests of justice.

(15) When the case in support of the charges is closed, the employee may be required to state his defence, orally or in writing, as he may prefer. If the defence is made orally, it shall be recorded and the employee shall be required to sign the record. In either case a copy of the statement of defence shall be given to the Presenting officer, if any, appointed.

(16) The evidence on behalf of the employee shall then be produced. The employee may examine himself in his own behalf, if he so prefers. The witnesses produced by the employee shall then be examined by the employee and may be cross-examined by the Presenting Officer. The employee shall be entitled to re-examine any of his witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on any new matter without the leave of the Inquiry Officer.

(17) The inquiry officer may, after the officer employee closes his evidence, and shall, if the officer employee has not got himself examined, generally question him on the circumstances appearing against him in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the employee to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him.

(18) After the completion of the production of the evidence, the employee and the Presenting Officer may file written briefs of their respective cases within 15 days of the date of completion of the production of evidence.

(19) If the employee does not submit the written statement of defence referred to in sub-regulation (3) on or before the date specified for the purpose or does not appear in person, or through the assisting officer or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations, the Inquiry Officer may hold the inquiry ex-parte.

(20) Whenever any Inquiry Officer, after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an inquiry ceases to exercise jurisdiction therein, and is succeeded by another Inquiry Officer which has, and which exercises, such jurisdiction, the Inquiry Officer so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by its predecessor, or partly recorded by its predecessor and partly recorded by itself:

Provided that if the succeeding Inquiry Officer is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witnesses whose evidence has already been recorded is necessary in the interest of justice, it may recall, examine, cross-examine and re-examine any such witnesses as herein before provided.

(21) (i) On the conclusion of the inquiry the Inquiry Officer shall prepare a report which shall contain the following :

- (a) a gist of the articles of charge and the statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (b) a gist of the defence of the employee in respect of each article of charge;
- (c) an assessment of the evidence in respect of each article of charge;
- (d) the findings on each article of charge and the reasons therefor

Explanation : If, in the opinion of the Inquiry Officer the proceedings of the inquiry establish any article of charge different from the original article of charge, it may record its findings on such article of charge.

Provided that the findings on such article of charge shall be recorded unless the employee has either admitted the facts on which such article of charge is based or has had a reasonable opportunity of defending himself against such article of charge.

(ii) The Inquiry Officer, where it is not itself the Competent Authority, shall forward to the Competent Authority the records of inquiry which shall include—

- (a) the report of the inquiry prepared by it under clause (i);
- (b) the written statement of defence, if any, submitted by the employee referred to in sub regulation (15);
- (c) the oral and documentary evidence produced in the course of the inquiry;
- (d) written briefs referred to in sub-regulation (18), if any, and
- (e) the orders, if any, made by the Competent Authority and the Inquiry Officer in regard to the inquiry.

Action on the inquiry report

81. (1) The Competent Authority, if it is not itself the Inquiry Officer, may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, remit the case to the inquiry for fresh or further inquiry and report and the Inquiry Officer shall thereupon proceed to hold the further inquiry according to the provisions of regulation 80 as far as may be.

(2) The Competent Authority, shall, if it disagrees with the findings of the Inquiry Officer on any article of charge, record its reasons for such disagreement and record its own findings on such charge, if the evidence on record is sufficient for the purpose.

(3) If the Competent Authority, having regard to the findings on all or any of the articles of charge, is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in regulation 79 should be imposed on the employee it shall notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 82, make an order imposing such penalty.

(4) If the Competent Authority having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge, is of the opinion that no penalty is called for, it may pass an order exonerating the employee concerned.

Procedure for imposing minor penalties

82. (1) Where it is proposed to impose any of the minor penalties specified in clauses (a) to (e) of regulation 79(1), the employee concerned shall be informed in writing of the imputations of lapses against him and given an opportunity to submit his written statement of defence within a specified period not exceeding 15 days or such extended period as may be granted by the Competent Authority and the defence statement, if any, submitted by the employee shall be taken into consideration by the Competent Authority before passing orders.

(2) Where however, the Competent Authority is satisfied that an inquiry is necessary, it shall follow the procedure for imposing a major penalty as laid down in regulation 80.

(3) The record of the proceedings in such cases shall include:

- (a) A copy of the statement of imputations of lapses furnished to the employee;
- (b) The defence statement, if any, of the employee; and
- (c) The orders of the Competent Authority together with the reasons therefor.

Communication of orders

83. Orders made by the Competent Authority under regulation 81 or regulation 82 shall be communicated to the employee concerned, who shall also be supplied with a copy of the report of inquiry, if any.

Common Proceedings

84. Where two or more employees are concerned in a case, the Competent Authority may make an order directing that the disciplinary proceedings against all of them may be taken in a common proceedings.

Special procedure in certain cases

85. Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation 80 or Regulation 81 or Regulation 82, the Competent Authority may impose any of the penalties specified in Regulation 79 if the facts on the basis of which action is to be taken have been established in a Court of Law or Court Martial or where the employee has absconded or where it is for any other reason impracticable to communicate with him or where there are other difficulties in observing the requirements contained in Regulation 80, 81 and 82 and the requirements can be waived without injustice to the employee. In every case where all or any of the requirements of Regulation 80, 81 and 82 are waived, the reasons for so doing shall be recorded in writing.

Suspension

86. (1) An employee may be placed under suspension by the competent authority :—

- (a) Where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending ; or
- (b) Where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial.

(2) An employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the competent authority—

- (a) with effect from the date of his detention, if he is detained in custody, whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding 48 hours ;
- (b) with effect from the date of his conviction, if, in the event of a conviction for an offence, he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment and is forthwith not dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired consequent to such conviction.

Explanation : The period of 48 hours referred to in clause (b) of this sub-regulation shall be computed from the commencement of the imprisonment after the conviction and for that purpose, intermittent periods of imprisonment, if any, shall be taken into account.

(3) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an employee under suspension is set aside in appeal under these regulations and the case is remitted for further enquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have been continued in force on and from the date of original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in force until further orders.

(4) Where a penalty of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an employee is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by a decision of a Court of Law and the Competent Authority, on a consideration of a circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further enquiry against him on the allegations on which a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by the Competent Authority from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.

Provided that no such further enquiry shall be ordered unless it is intended to meet a situation where the Court has passed an order purely on technical grounds without going into the merits of the case.

(5) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this regulation may at any time be modified or revoked by the Competent Authority which made or is deemed to have made the order.

Subsistence allowance

(6) During such suspension, he shall receive subsistence allowance equal to (i) his substantive pay plus fifty percent of allowances thereon, for the first six months of suspension; and (ii) his substantive pay plus seventy-five per cent of allowances thereon for the period of suspension beyond six months.

Provided that the enhanced rate of subsistence allowance specified under sub-clause (ii) shall be admissible only if the enquiry is not delayed for reasons attributable to the concerned employee or any of his representatives.

Provided further that if no penalty under Regulation 79 is imposed, the employee shall be refunded the difference between the subsistence allowance and the emoluments which he would have received but for such suspension, for the period he was under suspension, and that, if a penalty is imposed on him under Regulation 79, no order shall be passed which shall have the effect of compelling him to refund such subsistence allowance. The period during which an employee is under suspension shall, if he is not dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired from service, be treated as period spent on duty or leave as the Competent Authority who passes the final order may direct.

Vigilance cases

87. Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulations 79 to 86 or any other Regulation, the following additional provisions shall apply where it is alleged that an employee has been guilty of corrupt practices, namely:

- (1) Where it is alleged that an employee is possessed of disproportionate assets or that he has committed an act of criminal misconduct or where the investigation and proof of the allegation would require the evidence of persons, who are not employees of the Board or where, in the opinion of the competent authority, the investigation into the allegations may with the approval of the Chairman, be entrusted to the Central Bureau of Investigation or the Central Vigilance Commission or any other such agency as may be approved by the Chairman.
- (2) If after considering the report of the investigation, the competent authority is satisfied that there is a prima facie case for instituting disciplinary proceedings against the employee, it may send the investigation report to the Central Vigilance Commission or such other authority as may be decided by the Chairman from time to time in this behalf, for its advice whether disciplinary proceedings should be taken against the employee concerned;
- (3) If after considering the advice of the Central Vigilance Commission or other authority, as the case may be, the competent authority is of the opinion that disciplinary proceedings should be instituted against the employee concerned, then notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 80(2), the enquiry under this Regulation may be entrusted to a Commissioner for Departmental Enquiries or other person who may be nominated by the Central Vigilance Commission for this purpose.
- (4) The Inquiry Officer shall submit his report to the competent authority and the report shall be forwarded by the Chairman to the Central Vigilance Commission for its advice as to whether the charge or charges as the case may be, can be considered to have been established and the penalty or penalties to be imposed under Regulation 79 hereof. The penalty or penalties to be imposed shall be decided by the competent authority after considering the advice of the Central Vigilance Commission.

Explanation : An employee shall be deemed to be guilty of corrupt practices if he has committed an act of criminal misconduct as defined in Section 13 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 or he has acted for an improper purpose or in a corrupt manner or had exercised or refrained from exercising his powers with an improper or corrupt motive.

Appeal

88. (1) An employee may appeal against an order imposing upon him any of the penalties specified in Regulation 79 or order of suspension under Regulation 86. The appeal shall lie to the Appellate Authority.

Note : For the purpose of this regulation "Appellate Authority" means the Board, in case the Chairman is the competent authority; Chairman or whole-time member of the Board, in case the Executive Director is the competent authority and Executive Director concerned in all other cases.

(2) Every appeal shall comply with the following requirements:

- (a) it shall be written in Hindi or English or if not written in Hindi be accompanied by a translated copy in Hindi and shall be signed.
 - (b) it shall be couched in polite and respectful language and shall be free from unnecessary padding or superfluous verbiage.
 - (c) it shall contain all material statements and arguments relied on and shall be complete in itself.
 - (d) it shall specify the relief desired.
- (3) An appeal shall be preferred to the appellate authority within 45 days from the date of receipt of the order appealed against. The Appellate Authority shall consider whether the findings are justified or whether the penalty is excessive or inadequate and pass appropriate orders. The Appellate Authority may pass an order confirming, enhancing, reducing or setting aside the penalty or remitting the case to the authority which imposed the penalty or to any other authority with such direction as it may deem fit in the circumstances of the case

Provided that—

- (i) if the enhanced penalty which the Appellate Authority proposed to impose is a major penalty specified in Regulation 79 (2) and an inquiry as provided in regulation 80 has not already been held in the case, the Appellate Authority shall direct that such an inquiry be held in accordance with the provisions of regulation 80 and thereafter consider the record of the inquiry and pass such orders as it may deem proper.
- (ii) if the Appellate Authority decides to enhance the punishment but an inquiry has already been held as provided in regulation 80, the Appellate Authority shall give a show cause notice to the employee as to why the enhanced penalty should not be imposed upon him and shall pass final order after taking into account the representation, if any, submitted by the employee.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Medical aid facilities

89. (1) Medical aid and facilities shall be provided by the Board for its employees and such of their dependents in accordance with such guidelines as may be approved by the Board from time to time. The said guidelines, may, 'inter alia', provide for illness, injuries arising out of accidents, hospitalisation and domicile treatment.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-regulation (1) the Board may take a comprehensive health insurance policy covering all its employees and their dependants, on such terms and conditions, as it may determine.

90. Travelling and halting allowances shall be paid to the employees according to such rates and on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Board from time to time.

Deputation of employees to join military service

91. The terms and conditions subject to which an employee may be permitted to join military service shall be determined by the Board.

Deputation of employees to other services

92. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of Regulation 91, no employee of the Board may be deputed to serve under any other employer without the approval of the Chairman who shall determine the duration of such deputation and the terms and conditions on which the deputation shall take effect ;

Provided that no employee may be deputed to foreign service against his will.

(2) Where the services of an employee of the Board are placed (2) at the disposal of a foreign employer, it shall be a condition of the deputation that the foreign employer shall, during the periods of such deputation, bear the entire cost of the services of the employee including the following, viz.,

- (a) Pay during joining time,
- (b) Travelling allowances payable to the employee to enable him to join his appointment under a foreign employer and to return to his appointment in the Board on the termination of his deputation,
- (c) Leave earned during the period of deputation,
- (d) The employee's contributions to the employee's account in the Board's Provident Fund, and
- (e) If the employee is entitled to pension under the Board, an amount, as may be determined by the Chairman, sufficient to cover the Board's liability towards the pension for the period the employee is on deputation.

In addition, the foreign employer may also be required to make a contribution towards any gratuity or other sum for which the employee may become eligible on his retirement, on such scale as may be fixed by the Chairman.

Gratuity

93. (1) Every employee, shall be eligible for gratuity on :- (a) retirement ;

- (b) death ;
- (c) disablement rendering him unfit for further service as certified by Board's Medical Officer ;
- (d) resignation after completing five years of continuous service ; or
- (e) termination of service in any other way (except by way of punishment) after completion of five years of service.

²⁴[(2) The amount of gratuity payable shall be determined by the Board from time to time.

²⁴ Substituted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2010, w.r.e.f. 28-3-2003. Prior to its substitution, sub-regulations (2) read as under:

"(2) The amount of gratuity payable shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Provided that where an employee has completed more than 30 years of service in the Board, he shall be eligible by way of gratuity for an additional amount at the rate of one half of a month's pay for each completed year of service beyond 30 years.

(2A) An employee who has not completed a minimum period of ten years of continuous service in the Board, the gratuity shall be paid as per the provisions of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 (39 of 1972), as amended from time to time :

Provided that where an employee has completed a minimum period of ten years of continuous service in the Board, the gratuity shall be paid as per the SEBI (Payment of Gratuity to Employees) Rules, 2003:

Provided further that the gratuity amount payable to an employee shall not be less than the amount payable under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.]

²⁵[(3) Without prejudice to the sub-regulations (1), (2) and (2A), the Board may create a gratuity trust.]

²⁶[Subscription to the SEBI Provident Fund or the SEBI New Pension Scheme

94. (1) Unless otherwise specified in these regulations, every employee shall become a member of the SEBI Employee's Provident Fund and shall agree to be bound by the Rules of the Fund.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1), every whole time employee joining the services of the Board, on and from such date, as may be specified, shall only become a member of the SEBI New Pension Scheme and shall agree to be bound by the Rules of the Scheme.

(3) Every whole time employee of the Board who is a member of the SEBI Employee's Provident Fund, prior to such date as may be specified, shall be given an option to remain a member of the SEBI Employee's Provident Fund or to become a member of the SEBI New Pension Scheme, in such manner as may be specified.]

Obligation to subscribe to the insurance scheme or fund instituted by the Board

95. It shall be incumbent on every employee bound by these Regulations to subscribe to any insurance scheme or fund that may be instituted by the Board for the benefit of its employees and their families and to be bound by the rules of the said scheme or fund;

Provided that nothing contained in this Regulation shall serve to curtail any superannuation benefits which may otherwise be admissible to an employee;

Provided further that nothing contained in this Regulation shall require an employee to subscribe to the said scheme or fund if he is exempted from so doing under the rules of the said scheme or fund.

Provided further that the gratuity amount payable to an employee shall not be less than the amount payable under the payment of Gratuity Act, 1972."

²⁵ Substituted SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2010, w.r.e.f. 28-3-2003.

Prior to its substitution, sub-regulations (3) read as under: "(3) Without prejudice to the sub-regulations (1) and (2), the Board may create a gratuity trust."

²⁶ Substituted by SEBI (Employees' Service) (Amendment) Regulations, 2013, w.e.f. 23.12.2003. Prior to substitution, it read as :

"Obligation to subscribe to the Provident Fund

94. Unless otherwise directed by the Board or the Chairman, every employee shall become a member of the SEBI Employee's Provident Fund and shall agree to be bound by the Rules of the Fund."

Declarations to be signed by the employee

96. Every employee to whom these Regulations apply, or who exercises his option to come under them shall subscribe to declarations in Forms A to C.
