- (c) In case of ambiguity, incomplete or conflicting information or the information (including any additional information or documents which may be requested by the Acquirer and PAC from a Shareholder for ascertaining the taxes to be deducted) not being provided to the Acquirer and PAC, it would be assumed that the Shareholder is a non-resident Shareholder and taxes shall be deducted at the maximum rate as may be applicable to the relevant category to which the Shareholder belongs under the IT Act, on the entire consideration and interest if any, payable to such Shareholder.
- (d) In the event the Acquirer or the PAC, on the basis of any misrepresentation, inaccuracy or omission of information provided by a Shareholder, fail to withhold/deduct the required tax, and as a result of such failure the Acquirer or PAC are called upon by the Income-tax authorities (by way of a demand notice or otherwise) for recovery of the shortfall in the taxes withheld/deducted by the Acquirer or PAC, the Acquirer or PAC shall be entitled to seek indemnification from such Shareholder towards any payments made by the Acquirer or PAC to the Income-tax authorities towards such shortfall, together with any interest, penalties, costs and expenses payable or incurred or to be incurred by the Acquirer or PAC in connection therewith.

Pursuant to the said notification, any transfer of Equity Shares from any non-resident shareholder to the Acquirer and PAC shall be deemed as an international transaction and accordingly, transfer pricing provisions shall apply, including maintenance of documentation. In order to comply with the said notification and the related requirements thereof, the Acquirer and PAC reserve the right to request the following information from any Shareholder who is a tax resident of Cyprus and any other jurisdiction which may be notified by the Government of India:

- (b) A FII should certify ("FII Certificate") the nature of its income arising from the sale of Equity Shares as per the IT Act (whether capital gains or otherwise). In the absence of a FII Certificate to the effect that their income from sale of shares is in the nature of capital gains, the Acquirer and PAC will deduct tax at the maximum rate applicable to the category to which such FII belongs on the entire consideration payable to such FII. In the event that the FII submits a NOC or TCC from the Income-tax authorities under Section 195(3) or Section 197 of the IT Act along with the Form of Acceptance, indicating the amount of tax to be deducted by the PAC before remitting consideration, the Acquirer and PAC will deduct tax in accordance with the NOC/TCC.
- (c) As mentioned in Para 7.10.2(c) above, Cyprus has been notified as a notified jurisdictional area under Section 94A of the IT Act. Pursuant to the said notification, any transfer of Equity Shares from an FII which does not certify that the nature of its income arising from the sale of Equity Shares to the Acquirer and PAC is in the nature of capital gains shall be deemed as an international transaction and accordingly, transfer pricing provisions shall apply, including maintenance of documentation.  - (iv) any other information, data or document, which may be relevant for the transaction.
- (d) In respect of interest income, in the event that the FII submits a NOC or TCC from the Income-tax authorities indicating the amount of tax to be deducted by the Acquirer and PAC under the IT Act, the Acquirer and PAC will deduct tax in accordance with the NOC/TCC so submitted. In absence of such NOC/TCC, the Acquirer and PAC will arrange to deduct tax at the maximum rate applicable to the category to which such FII belongs.

7.10.4 Tax to be deducted in case of resident Eligible Shareholders

The documents submitted by the Eligible Shareholders along with the Form of Acceptance will be considered as final. Any further/delayed submission of additional documents, unless specifically requested by the PAC will be accepted at the sole discretion of the Acquirer and PAC.
- 7.10.10 The final decision to withhold tax or not, or the quantum of taxes to be withheld rests solely with the Acquirer and PAC.
- 7.10.11 Taxes once withheld will not be refunded by the Acquirer and PAC under any circumstances. The tax withheld under this Offer is not the final liability of the Eligible Shareholders or in no way discharges the obligation of Eligible Shareholders to disclose the amount received pursuant to this Offer.
- 7.10.12 All Eligible Shareholders are advised to consult their tax advisors for the treatment that may be given by their respective assessing officers in their case, and the appropriate course of action that they should take.
