

Conditions for Grant of Permission regarding Lok Sabha Debates

- (i) None of the material may be copied, reproduced, distributed, republished, downloaded, displayed, posted or transmitted in any form or by any means, including but not limited to, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior permission of the copyright owner i.e. Lok Sabha Secretariat. However, the material can be displayed, copied, distributed and downloaded for personal, non-commercial use only, provided the material is not modified and all copyright and other proprietary notices contained in the material are retained.
- (ii) There must be faithful verbatim reproduction, no editing, etc. is allowed;
- (iii) No extracts will be published in a matter which distorts or creates a misleading impression regarding the intention of the hon'ble Member/Members whose speeches are extracted there from;
- (iv) The extracts will not be used in any publication or along with any other printed matter i.e. likely to create disharmony between different groups and communities in India, or cast doubt upon the borders of India or threaten the territorial integrity of India or which contains obscene matter or anything that is illegal;
- (v) The permission is not transferable and the publisher may not authorize any other person to reproduce the material from Lok Sabha Debaters;
- (vi) The permission to reproduce from Lok Sabha Debaters/Committees Reports would afford no protection against any legal proceedings that may arise out of any reproduction of a defamatory character;
- (vii) This permission is limited to print media in book format only (or alternatively Lok Sabha could specify the media eg. Film, internet etc. as desired);
- (viii) The permission is liable to be revoked by the Secretariat, if the Secretariat has reason to believe that any of the aforesaid conditions has not been complied with;